Our Core Values

The People We Serve

- The poor and physically suffering
- The disadvantaged, isolated, marginalized
- Those with limited access to other assistance
- Those motivated to help themselves

The Members & Volunteers We Work With

- Are committed and motivated
- Are law-abiding citizens (validated by police checks if working in or visiting project areas)
- Are innovative, adaptable and flexible
- Are sensitive to and respectful toward all faiths.
- Are non-abrasive, respectful of and cooperative with others; free to exhibit their own individuality but sensitive to appropriate etiquette and protocol
- Have pride and professionalism in their work
- Have a sense of humour and enjoy adventure
- Value humanity above wealth and materialism

The Work We Do

- Is to the genuine and maximum benefit of the beneficiary
- Does no harm (environmentally, socially, culturally)
- Discourages relationships of dependency and instead builds toward sustainability
- Is collaborative with government and non-government agencies.
- Enhances the ownership and capacity of the local people
- Builds lasting friendship and understanding
- Contributes to Christ's vision for our world: peaceful, just, restored and reconciled to God.

The Resources We Use

- We are responsible and dependable
- We are cost efficient and frugal, not wasteful or abusive
- We build the capacity of local skills, personnel and resources
- We are accountable and transparent with the resources we use
